

Clare Cantu-McMillian

Ms. Clare Cantu-McMillian is a proud staff member of Woodlake Hills Middle School teaching Orchestra. Prior to teaching at WHMS, she taught a year in her hometown of Plano, TX where she gained valuable experience in orchestral practices in PISD. She has been teaching secondary orchestra to students in San Antonio for 8 years, starting at Brackenridge HS. As an undergrad, she spent several years at Louisiana State University and finished her bachelor's degree from University of Texas at San Antonio in 2001. She is a first chair Texas All State Orchestra member, a member of the Kerrville Symphony Orchestra, and a distinguished violist for several performing groups in San Antonio. The WHMS Orchestra has grown considerably under her leadership, has received Superior ratings at UIL and at the 2010 American Classics Music Festival in Corpus Christie. She is a proud parent of Paul and Tomas who attend Crestview ES, and Kitty Hawk MS.
