CLIFF ELLIS

WAGNER HIGH SCHOOL

HEAD BASKETBALL COACH

After a successful 2009-2010 season in which the Thunderbirds repeated as Region IV Championship and made it back to the State Semi-finals, Coach Ellis is excited about the future at Wagner High School. Coach Ellis came to Wagner after serving as the Associate Head Coach at Judson High School for four years helping guide the Rockets to back to back Regional Tournament appearances.

Before coming to the Judson School District, Coach Ellis served as an assistant at South San H.S., helping the Bobcats reach the Regional- Quarterfinals and a district 27- 5A championship. Coach Ellis also worked as an assistant at his collegiate Alma Mater Texas State University.

Playing Experience

High School: Coach Ellis was a three year starter at Roosevelt High School where he led the Rough Riders to the Regional Finals. He was voted all district three times and left as the all-time leader in assists and steals at Roosevelt H.S. and scored over 1,000 points for his career.

College: Coach Ellis went on to Temple College, where he was named all conference and all region. While finishing in the top five nationally in assists both years and guiding Temple to the Regional Finals. After leaving Temple, Coach Ellis went on to become the Newcomer of the Year at Texas State and finished fifth in the country in Free Throw Percentage at 90% and scored over 1,000 points for his college career.
