J.I.S.D. Convocation Is Driven By Excellence

Judson ISD will be celebrating Convocation and the 2019-2020 school year with the inspirational message of “Driven By Excellence.” We continue to give families more reasons to choose Judson ISD for an education that makes students competitive in college and in the workplace. From a new ALL DAY Pre-K program at each of our elementary schools, to a robust dual credit program that includes a nationally ranked high school (JECA) and a Career and Technology Education program that offers more than 30 professional recognized industry certifications. And that’s just the start.

This Convocation is kicking off a brand new year with an inspirational message from Consuelo Kickbusch. Ms. Kickbusch carries with her a powerful lesson in effective leadership that was sowed by her immigrant parents and reinforced in her service with the U.S. Army.

Convocation is set for Friday, August 9, 2019 at Freeman Coliseum. Master of Ceremonies will be Judson ISD teacher Mr. Pedro Cabrera who is the driving force and energy behind the Judson High School Communications Department.

Along with the address by Ms. Kickbusch, this convocation will include a special message from Judson ISD’s Superintendent of Schools Dr. Jeanette Ball who will bring some exciting news about the district.
