

Judson ISD Alumni Recognition Program
Nomination Criteria (last revised by Board in March 2016)

The criterion outlined below has been approved by the Judson ISD Board of Trustees as applied to an Athletic Hall of Honor and a Civic Hall of Honor. Inductees to both Halls of Honor will be recognized collectively in the “JISD Hall of Honor.”

Athletic Hall of Honor

Criteria for nomination into the Athletic Hall of Honor will be based upon the following criteria. Using the following guidelines, a Judson ISD graduate, team, employee, or former employee, can be nominated for induction if they meet at least one of the following qualifications. Any Judson ISD graduate, team, employee, or former employee inducted into another Hall of Fame or Hall of Honor can automatically be considered for induction into the “JISD Hall of Honor” A maximum of three individuals and two teams can gain entry to the Hall annually.

The criteria can be reviewed and changed annually.

Like the Athletic Hall, the public will have the opportunity to annually nominate potential members of the Civic Hall. The criteria can be reviewed and changed annually.

Nominees will be evaluated on their involvement in their respective communities; extraordinary career status/success; contributions to the Judson community, region, state, nation, and/or world; and when relevant a combination of these attributes.

Civic criteria will be outlined in a nomination application where the individual completing the form provides detailed qualifications for each nominee. Supplemental information may be included with the completed application.

A selection committee will evaluate nominees submitted by the public. The selection committee will be comprised of the superintendent or designee, three educators from the district representing elementary, middle and high school levels, and three community representatives appointed by the board of trustees. The community representatives should reside in separate high school attendance zones. This committee having a total of 7 members, will evaluate only Civic Hall of Honor nominees. A maximum of three individuals can gain entry to the Hall annually.

- If an individual has not been selected for the Civic Hall after being nominated 7 times, that individual is no longer eligible for approval.
- At a minimum, 7 years must elapse following graduation for an individual to be enshrined in the Civic Hall.

Regarding the Athletic and Civic halls of honor:

The sitting selection committees may convene at any time to evaluate and recommend that an individual/team be removed from a Hall due to behavior or actions:

- 1) that portrays Judson ISD in a negative light or
- 2) that would not serve as a positive model for the students and community of Judson ISD.
