MAGIK THEATRE ON THE ROAD

Magik Theatre is driven by the belief that theatre can be transformative. By seeing and participating in live performances, children learn to identify with others, build self-esteem, and develop confidence in their own abilities.

Magik Theatre on the Road provides fun, live performances of high quality to young audiences. Make us part of your plans!

ABOUT EDDIE & VINNIE

Eddie has dyslexia and struggles with schoolwork, and finds out he can't play on the basketball team unless he gets his grades up. With the help of his pet gecko, Vinnie, and the overly-helpful new girl in class, will Eddie's final class presentation come together, or will his basketball dreams be dashed forever? A Magik Theatre world premiere!

The work celebrates the dyslexic mind and how students with the disorder find unique, innovative ways to succeed in school and in their careers.

Tours September 2022 & April 2023 | Recommended for ages 5+

In 2019, Celebrate Dyslexia's CEO, Jasmin Dean, approached Magik Theatre about creating a play because of Magik Theatre's impact on her son, who has dyslexia. Watching performances at Magik Theatre helped him with reading as the words jumped off the page. Ms. Dean is thrilled with the outcome of this collaboration: "What a profound opportunity to celebrate, educate and empower the 1 in 5 with dyslexia with such an incredible partner and team at the Magik Theatre. They provide a safe space where every stakeholder can explore their unique positions to move this conversation forward into earliest identification and interventions possible. Through this play, Jenny Millinger honors the struggle and strength of the dyslexic learner."

Playwright Jenny Millinger, who is the Associate Artistic Director at Childsplay Arizona and co-editor of I Have a Story: Plays from an Extraordinary Year, was immediately taken by the project and up to the task of capturing the dyslexic mind: "Every child's brain works in unique and beautiful ways. I have met and been owed by many young people who are navigating the world with dyslexia and look forward to sharing a story that celebrates their creativity, adaptability, persistence, and courage."
