Executive Summary

Templeton Demographics was engaged to conduct a “Demographic Study” for Judson ISD in September 2011. The process included: (geocoding of student records to develop housing yields, single family housing research, multi-family research, vacant land review, interviews with city staff and review of economic trends.

Texas has weathered the economic down turn far better than any other state in the country. The diverse economy helped to lessen the economic recession that has plagued the country since 2006. The location of Judson ISD, in the San Antonio metroplex, has helped the school district maintain enrollment growth during the last five years. Situated between two military bases and proximity to the growing employment center will continue to allow the district to experience enrollment growth.

Enrollment in Judson ISD has increased 2,359 students during the last five years with a district wide enrollment of 22,627 students as of October 2011. Factors contributing to the enrollment growth are: single family development, increasing apartment yields, location within the San Antonio metroplex. The city of San Antonio consistently ranks in the top-ten major cities for job and population growth. Forbes ranked SA 4th in the country for large city job growth.

New housing in Judson ISD remains good with the district seeing approximately 600 new houses per year. Judson ISD ranks 5th in the SA region in new home starts. The district has approximately 1,657 vacant developed lots and approximately 9,000 future lots. New home construction is primarily located in the Rolling Meadows Elementary zone, Masters Elementary zone and the Salinas Elementary zone. The Judson ISD new housing market has followed the national trend slowing due to the difficult economic conditions and the housing crash which began to impact new housing in Judson in 2007. New housing has stabilized and should begin to improve with continued job growth and increasing consumer confidence. The economic outlook for the SA region continues to be one of the strongest in the country.

The economy is slowly improving and many economists believe that new housing will begin to improve during the second half of 2012 and continue growing in 2013.

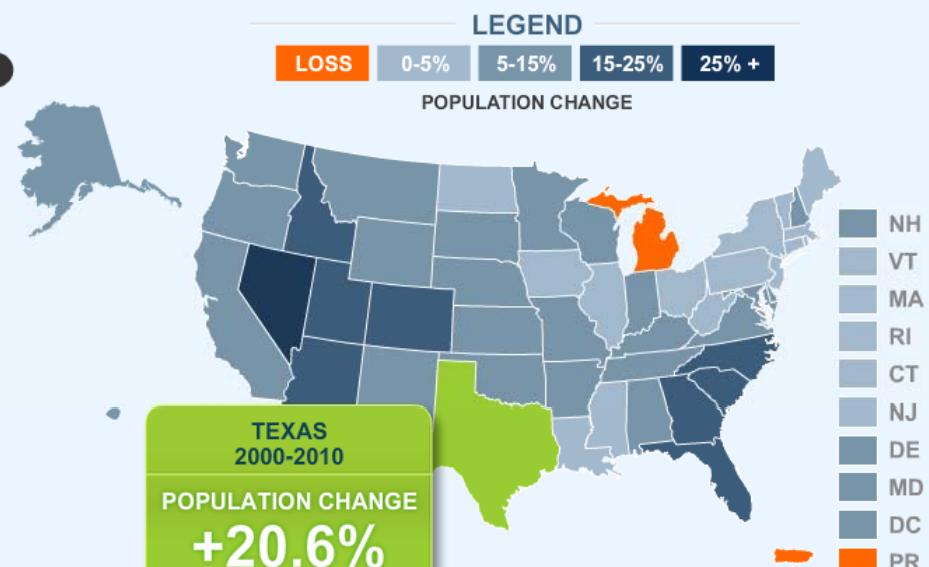

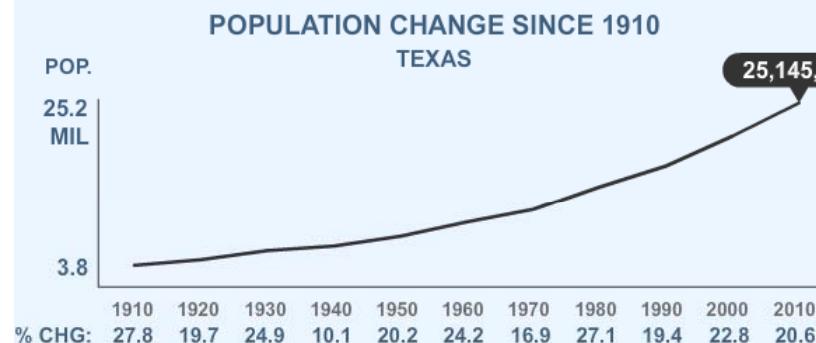

Templeton Demographics is forecasting enrollment to grow by 2.5% for the 2012 school year adding 560 additional students. During the next five years the district can expect an addition of nearly 2,500 students with total enrollment exceeding 25,000 students by the year 2016. Six elementary schools positioned to exceed capacity by the year 2015. Kitty Hawk Middle School positioned to exceed capacity in the year 2013 and both comprehensive High Schools are currently over capacity and the district will likely see an additional 1,300 High School students by the year 2016.

Judson ISD can expect steady enrollment growth of between 1%-2.5% annual enrollment growth during the next ten years.
